Free Dental Clinic President Ron Keller entertains as one of the Tooth Fairies.

A Bingo Babe, Caroline Cook, checks winning numbers as Emcee Bill Nellis, behind the Foster Grants, supervises.

Thank you, Rotary:

Tooth Fairy Bingo, a partnership of the Rotary Club of Cashiers Valley and the Rotary Club of Highlands, filled the Community Building last Thursday night and generated over $1600 for the Blue Ridge Free Dental Clinic/Children's Dental Care and $86 in tips for Highlands Cub Scouts. Special thanks and smiles go to Tay Bronaugh and Bill Nellis, our caller-Emcee team, Bingo Babes: Sarah Sloan, Caroline Cook, Sharon Smith, Molly Leonard and Past President Derek Taylor aka "Derika"; Jim Barton and Jack Wood who handle the money; Buck Trott, Thomas Craig and Phil Potts who handled refreshments with Highlands Cub Scouts and Barbara Lawrence for table ad sales.

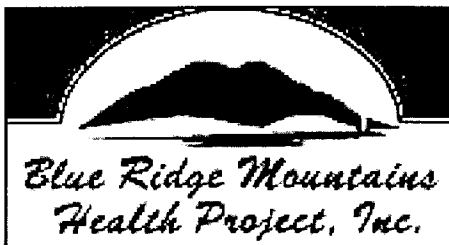

Refreshments were provided by Mountain Rarities and the Dare to Win $500 Challenge offered by Highlands Decorating Center. Thanks also to WHLC, Highlands' Newspaper and, our old friend, The Highlander. Grateful appreciation is given to the Rotary Club of Cashiers, who set a Bingo record attendance. Lastly, Rotary's thanks to the three Tooth Fairies with their six foot tooth brushes, who brought another dimension to Bingo.

Upcoming Programs

July 21st: District Governor Carol King

Carol King is a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Asheville where she earned a BS in Accounting. She operates a CPA firm in Asheville focusing on taxation, small business consulting and financial advising. Carol served as President of the Rotary Club of Asheville in 2001-02, was awarded RI's Distinguished Club Presidential Citation and has served as Assistant Governor. On June 27th she was installed as District Governor and is District 7670's first female governor.

July 28: Blue Ridge Mountain Health Project

Robbie Cahill, a Cashiers Rotarian and Assistant at the Blue Ridge Free Dental Clinic, will discuss the "Children's Dental Health Project", which the Rotary Club of Cashiers in conjunction with the Free Dental Clinic established an outreach program for schoolchildren that offers dental screenings, dental awareness days, and weekly optional fluoride rinses -- all provided for free through their cooperative effort.
