August is Rotary Membership and Extension Month

Think about bringing a guest to Rotary or just get to know a fellow Rotarian better, particularly one of our new Rotarians. Enrich your membership in Rotary through volunteering, participation in a committee or learning more about Rotary.

Check out what Rotary has to say about Membership, visit: www.rotary.org/membership - you'll be redirected to what Rotary sees and thinks about Membership.

Relay For Life is coming up: Friday evening, August 28th through Saturday morning August 29th. You can register on line by going to www.relayforlife.org/mountaintop. Then go to "Join Team" and enter "Rotary Cloudwalkers & Troup 207" or "Highlands Scouts". For additional information see Rick Siegel or Robert E. Smith

Playhouse Bingo – Oh, yes!

Playhouse Bingo filled the Community building to standing room only and would-be Bingo players had to be turned away. A sea of children, young people, parents, grandparents and friends of the Playhouse and Rotary Bingo shared a wave of money, laughter and Bryant Art Glass originals. Highlands Playhouse will see over $1200 from Rotary Bingo and Boy Scout Troup 207 earned $148. Special thanks from Rotary Bingo and Highlands Playhouse go to volunteers: Bill Nellis, Tay Bronaugh, Jim Barton, Buck Trott, Jack Wood, Sarah and Wiley Sloan, Caroline and Jodie Cook, Luther Turner, Thomas Craig and Slocum Howland on camera. Boy Scouts' Samuel Craig, Taylor Schmitt and Carter Potts served refreshments and brought parents. Thanks also to the Playhouse's Henry Johnson who shared the Bingo stage with Tay.
