Manes & Tails Bingo Recap

Manes & Tails Bingo saw the debut of Bill Nellis as a country singer – he’s keeping his day job – and provided an evening of entertainment, laughs and some surprises. Rotarian Eric NeSmith won the ‘big money’ and donated it to Carpe Diem Farms. All told, Carpe Diem had a $1200 plus evening. Troop 207 was also a winner with $72 in tips. Many thanks go to the volunteers who made Manes & Tails happen: Tay Bronaugh, Bill Nellis, Jack Wood, Buck Trott, Luther Turner, Caroline and Jodie Cook, Molly Leonard, Paul Schmitt and his children and lastly, Jim Barton.

District has asked that Rotarians list their email address with District. Your email address on our web site, highlandsrotary.org, is separate.

You will need your Rotary number to complete this process. Your Rotary number appears above your mailing address on the Rotarian, your monthly Rotary magazine. Your Rotary number will look like: # 05128925 and note that there are 8 digits to the number.

This is how to do it:

Go to: www.rotary7670.org –this is our Rotary District website.

Click on: DACDB –and a new screen will come up.

Click on: enter the DaCdb

Now you’ll be directed to sign in:

For your user name enter your email address such as: johnrotarian@hughes.net

For your password enter your Rotary number such as: 05128925 (note: 8 digits)

Click: login

On the new screen there are a line of tabs. Click on: Members

Your name will appear. Click on: Edit MY Data

Edit Member will appear. Enter your data here.

When you’ve finished with data entry click: Update at the bottom and you’re finished.

If you are on our Highlands Rotary web site member directory, it does not mean that you are on the district list. These are separate email lists.

Please give this your attention – less than half of our Rotary is email listed with District.

Upcoming Programs

Sept. 15: Lee Feldman

Lee Feldman is the Executive Director of the National Peace Foundation. NPF works to empower citizens around the world who seek to improve the institutions of civil society. Lee will be speaking about international policy making on environmental and global health issues.

Sept. 22: Matt Eberz

Matt Eberz graduated from Penn State and after a career in the US Army; he invented and developed the ADAM notification system used by the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children. His first novel, “Tenth Man” was published in 2005; followed by “Very Public Data.” His latest novel “Honor for Sale” was published this year and is set in Highlands. Matt is the Past President of the Literacy Council.
