Highlands Rotarians in the Community:

Doc Wilson and Tay Bronaugh pitch in for Highlands Motoring Festival with "Have Grill - Will Travel."

The second annual Highlands Motoring Festival was held this past Saturday for car lovers, the Hudson Library and other Highlands charities which will benefit from the proceeds. Rotarians Chuck Cooper, Marc Pittman and Bob Kieltyka were among the prime movers of this Highlands event with Robert E. Smith representing the Hudson Library.

Cub Scout Bingo - Thursday, October 1st

What are most Boy Scouts before they're Boy Scouts? Answer: Cub Scouts. Highlands Rotary will be joining with Highlands Pack 207 for Cub Scout Bingo. Money from this fundraiser will be used to defray Scouting costs and help Cub Scouts bring boys to Scouting.

There are several ways Rotarians can help. First, come to Cub Scout Bingo for a genuinely fun evening. Already have plans? Get the other Rotarians at your table to pitch in some dollars with you and buy a table ad/sponsorship for $50 - as a Cub Scout would say, "Do Your Best."

Cub Scout Bingo will be Thursday, Oct 1st, here at the Community Building from 6:30 to 8:30 pm.

Rotary Bingo Chairman Jodie Cook presents a check to Rotarian Sue Blair for $1245 for Manes & Tails Bingo.

Upcoming Programs

Sept. 22: Matt Eberz

Matt Eberz graduated from Penn State and after a career in the US Army; he invented and developed the ADAM notification system used by the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children. His first novel, "Tenth Man" was published in 2005, followed by "Very Public Data." His latest novel "Honor for Sale" was published this year and is set in Highlands. Matt is the Past President of the Literacy Council.

Sept. 29: Mayor Don Mullen

Born in Charlotte, NC, Don graduated from the Citadel earned his MD from Duke Medical School and M Div from Princeton Theological Seminary and is a retired cardiovascular surgeon. He's more familiar to us as the Mayor of Highlands and as the Parish Associate of the First Presbyterian Church of Highlands. Don and his wife, Patsy, have been married 52 years and have 5 children and 16 grandchildren.
