Shop With a Cop Rotary Bingo Dec. 3

Rotary Bingo is partnering with the Highlands Police Department and Macon County Sheriff's Department to offer Shop With a Cop Rotary Bingo on Thursday, Dec. 3rd. The proceeds from this event will go to Shop With a Cop to provide a Christmas for children in Highlands and Macon County that otherwise would not see Christmas. Sheriff Robbie Holland will be speaking today about Shop With a Cop.

How can you participate? Come to Shop With a Cop Rotary Bingo – with a charity like Shop With a Cop combined with Bill Nellis, Rotary's own Santa, Sheriff Robbie Holland, Chief Bill Harrell and Get Out of Jail Free cards you can't miss. Other plans? Okay, get with your friends; put together $100 and be a Christmas for a Kid sponsor. Made the check to Rotary, get it to Jim Barton and this donation will be included with the Rotary Bingo money to Shop With a Cop. Highlands Boy Scout Troop 207 will be serving refreshments.

Thank you, Cynthia!

Before the Halloween celebration on Main Street, our Interact Club members helped pass out candy to Main Street merchants with the assistance of Tom Jessup, Highlands School's guidance counselor. Thank you, Cynthia for doing a great job as our Interact Club Liaison.

Nov. Rotary Donations

The Rotary Board at its November 12th Meeting approved the following donations:

- up to $4000 for teachers and assistants at the Highlands School.
- $1000 for painting work at the Highlands Community Child Development Center.
- $1500 for the Literacy Council of Highlands as a matching grant contribution.
- $3000 for emergency heating assistance in the Highlands area.
- match up to $500 in pass the bucket donations to Shop With a Cop on Nov. 17th.
