Congratulations Buck!

Last Tuesday Rotarian Buck Trott was awarded the Duke Power Citizenship and Service Award by Fred Alexander, a long time friend and a Duke Energy Business Manager. Some of the award's selection criteria are:

- Recognize activities that set a standard and foster a culture for citizenship, service and community responsibility.
- Integrity – Behave ethically, Tell the truth, Keep commitments, Meet both the spirit and letter of the law.
- Teamwork – Work together to achieve superior results, Supply and rely on each other, Demonstrate clear and open communications.
- Inclusion – Value diversity and respect the dignity of each person, Value differences in people & perspectives, Build relationships based on mutual trust, Recognize the contributions of every individual.

Have a Happy Thanksgiving!

Thank you, Rotarians!

Passing the hat for Shop With a Cop displayed the generosity of Highlands Rotarians. Including the $500 matched by our Treasury, Sheriff Robbie Holland was presented a check for $1900 for Shop With a Cop – that's Christmas at Wal-Mart for 19 children. Thank you Rotary!

Shop With a Cop Rotary Bingo Dec. 3

Rotary Bingo, the Highlands Police Department and Macon County Sheriff's Department will offer Shop With a Cop Rotary Bingo on Thursday, Dec. 3rd. The proceeds from this event will go to Shop With a Cop to provide a Christmas for children in Highlands and Macon County that otherwise would not see Christmas.

How can you participate? Come to Shop With a Cop Rotary Bingo – with a charity like Shop With a Cop combined with Rotary's own Santa, Sheriff Robbie Holland, Chief Bill Harrell and Get Out of Jail Free cards you can't miss. Other plans? Okay, get with your friends; put together $100 and be a Christmas for a Kid sponsor. Made the check to Rotary, get it to Jim Barton and this donation will be included with the Rotary Bingo money to Shop With a Cop.

Highlands Boy Scout Troop 207 will be serving refreshments.

Upcoming Programs

Dec. 1: Rotary Meeting

Election of Officers, Club Assembly and Club Leadership Plan.

There will not be a meeting Dec. 8. The Christmas Party on Dec. 5 will count as the meeting.
