December marks focus on Family of Rotary

If the Future of Rotary is in Your Hands, then children are also in our hands. They are the future. A focus of the Rotary Club of Highlands is children – children in area schools, in Scouting, Interact, Students of the Month, Children's Dental Health Project, Shop With a Cop, the Academic and Athletic Banquets and the list goes on.

The Family of Rotary are the families that support and from time-to-time sacrifice so that we can be Rotarians – it's a good month to say thank you.

Shop with a Cop Rotary Bingo this Thursday

Rotary Bingo, the Highlands Police Department and Macon County Sheriff's Department will offer Shop With a Cop Rotary Bingo on Thursday, Dec. 3rd. The proceeds from this event will go to Shop With a Cop to provide a Christmas for children in Highlands and Macon County that otherwise would not see Christmas.

How can you participate? Come to Shop With a Cop Rotary Bingo – with a charity like Shop With a Cop combined with Rotary's own Santa, Sheriff Robbie Holland, Chief Bill Harrell and Get Out of Jail Free cards you can't miss. Other plans? Okay, get with your friends; put together $100 and be a Christmas for a Kid sponsor. Made the check to Rotary, get it to Jim Barton and this donation will be included with the Rotary Bingo money to Shop With a Cop. Highlands Boy Scout Troop 207 will be serving refreshments.

November Rotary Scholars

The Rotary Club of Highlands recently honored the Highlands Rotary Students of the Month. Shown with Rotary Past President Derek Taylor and Highlands School Counselor, Thomas Jessup are: Emily Dorsey from the Middle School, Marie Essary representing the Grammar School and High School winner, Sarah Hedden.

Parade Time is Near!

Santa has scheduled the Rotary Flyer for his annual trip down Main Street in the Olde Mountain Christmas Parade, this Saturday, Dec. 5. The parade begins at 11 am and for those who plan, it lasts about an hour. Escorted by candy-giving Rotary elves and elfettes, Santa is a treat to see as is the whole parade.

Upcoming Programs

There will not be a meeting Dec. 8. The Christmas Party on Dec. 5 will count as the meeting.
