Dental Education Day great success

A tooth fairy of the Blue Ridge Dental Clinic visited students at Highlands School on Monday to promote the importance of dental health. Her visit is part of the Dental Health Project that is sponsored by our club and the Mountaintop morning club.

Scouts and Club members pitch in to help Stop Hunger Now

This past Saturday club members and scouts from Troop 207 volunteered in Franklin to help package meals for the Stop Hunger Now program. More than 100,000 meals were packaged and sent to aid Haiti. At top left, District Governor Carole King is pictured with Troop 207 Scouts and their Rotarian leaders Rick Demetriou, Tay Bronaugh and Mike Murphy. At bottom left club member Jim Barton, his wife Betty, club member Mike Hunter and Caroline Cook assist in the effort.
