March 19, 2019 – Bulletin & Newsletter Water & Sanitation Month

Message: Alas, it is March Madness. Many of us will be glued to our computers, smart phones and maybe even a television to take in some exciting college basketball over the next few weeks. We can all enjoy a little basketball together by completing a bracket at ESPN.com. Christy Kelly will give us the instructions on how to play and we will try to come up with a grand prize for the ultimate winner.

Sally Taylor introduced many of us to the Blue Zones initiative she is trying to bring to Macon and Jackson counties. This is a bold initiative that stands to positively change many aspects of the lives of residents in our community and surrounding area. The Blue Zones program helps reduce healthcare costs, employee absenteeism as well as other positive outcomes by showing people how to live a more fulfilling and healthy lifestyle. We look forward to hearing more about this program.

PTO Bingo

The Highlands PTO enjoyed a full house on Thursday night with Rotary sponsored Bingo. Brian McClellan called the numbers and he was supported by Andy Chmar and Rick Wileford as the money changers. Derek Taylor and Jerry Moore were the not so famous Bingo trolls. Of course Slocum Howland showed up with a few jokes and organized a picture or two. The Raby and Dendy families were clearly the big winners.

Upcoming Programs

3/26/19: Leigh Tabor, Director Macon County Veteran Services, will discuss the 100th Anniversary of the American Legion.

4/2/19: Brent Martin will discuss Macon County's NC Bartram Trail: History and Perspective.

4/9/19: TBA

Four Way Test
Is it the truth?
Is it fair to all concerned?
Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
Will it be beneficial to all concerned?
