“I love a parade...”

President Derek Taylor and club members Marc Pittman and Barbara Lawrence are shown representing our club in the 22nd Annual Highlands Christmas Parade this past weekend.

SuperBingo Thank you

Last Thursday’s “Pre-Hibernation Rotary Bingo” did well – it signaled a new level (high or low?) of chair dancing, innovative Bingo games, another Nellis character, a ‘near miss’ on the SuperBingo, tree huggers, the last player standing – well, you get the picture. SuperBingo in 2008 made some money, did well for the Highlands School and Scouting, projected a good image for Highlands Rotary and was a lot of fun for a lot of people. It also showed what Rotarians working together can do. Many thanks to the Rotarians who made Bingo happen.

No, it is not Uncle Eddie from Christmas Vacation . It is our very own Santa Elf, Bill Nellis, celebrating with SuperBingo winners.

Seats are still available for Honor Air

If you are interested, please notify Bert McCall or Steve Perry as soon as possible. If you are interested in sponsoring a seat for a WWII veteran, please contact Bert McCall. This is an incredible opportunity for WWII veterans to experience the new WWII memorial in Washington. A sponsorship costs $400 per seat. This includes the round trip plane flight, lunch and a welcoming reception.

Upcoming Programs

Dec. 16, 2008

Linda Steigleder, Executive Director of The Bascom since Jan. 2008, will be joined by Artistic Director Kaye Gorecki to speak about the Bascom construction and The Bascom’s 2009 public programs and benefit events.

MERRY CHRISTMAS! NO MEETING ON DEC. 23
AND HAPPY NEW YEAR! NO MEETING ON DEC. 30
