Rotary Bingo Returns

After taking the winter off – Rotary Bingo returns for spring with Boy Scout Troop 207 as its partner for the Thursday, April 2nd debut of Bingo for 2009 in the Highlands Community Building.

Highlands Boy Scouts – Troop 207 – will receive the net proceeds from Rotary Bingo that night – don't worry half of all money paid for Bingo cards goes to the players. The number of Boy Scouts in Highlands has soared and Bingo will help provide the funds needed to support Scouting in Highlands.

Thursday, April 2nd Bingo will see Scouts serve refreshments but not just receive tips and donations – they'll be there for the big money. Before you ask – yep, Highlands oldest Boy Scout Buck Trott will be there.

Bingo is $1 per card per game and there will be 15 games with a break midway. The last Bingo game will be a Stimulus Bingo – be there to see what it will be this time! Bingo starts at 6:30 and ends about 8:30. Refreshments are complimentary and the fun is mandatory.

This will be a great family outing – bring children and grandchildren. If you've been to Rotary Bingo before – welcome back. If this is new to you – give it a try!

The Highlands Rotary Club is licensed to operate Bingo by the State of NC.
